Terms and Conditions

It is the Contracting Organization’s responsibility to see that the following requirements are met:

Food and drink are prohibited inside the classrooms.

Alcohol is prohibited inside the buildings and classrooms.

Signage and other marketing materials may not be hung on the walls in or outside of the classroom.

A non-university group shall not advertise or announce an event held in University facilities in any manner that would suggest that the event is endorsed or sponsored by the University.

Events should be scheduled in rooms with a capacity large enough to accommodate expected audience. Fire regulations prohibit overcrowding. Event will be cancelled if attendance exceeds posted capacities.

Any group which abuses the privilege of using the facility, or equipment will be denied future use. Breakage or damage to furniture, equipment or facility must be paid for at a price determined by the University.

It is highly recommended that events requiring use of an enhanced classroom schedule a training to learn how to use the technology/equipment. Unless special arrangements are made, there is no support available on evenings or weekends and Rutgers is not responsible for an inability to hold the event due to inability to operate the equipment.

Applicable Fees to non-university groups:

Technology Fee: $25 (no training)
Training: $50 per training
Tech Support: $75/hour

The University is not responsible for storage of any kind.

Academic Scheduling will solely determine room availability and assign each reservation to the most appropriate space available. Requests for specific rooms or spaces will be honored when possible. Scheduling reserves the right to re-assign space when necessary and to identify suitable alternative space for the original reservation.

Permits may be revoked by the Office of Academic Scheduling whenever the use of facilities may interfere with the use by the University or where there has been a violation of these regulations.

The Contracting Organization agrees to HOLD HARMLESS and indemnify Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, against any and all claims, demands, or suits by any persons against related damages.
The University is not responsible for accidents, injuries or loss of property and has the right to require a certificate of insurance.

Insurance Requirements shall apply to any non-university organization staging an event at Rutgers University, as follows:

Commercial General Liability – minimum $1,000,000 – Combined Single Limit.

This stipulated minimum must be part of a general liability policy covering the event. “RUTGERS, THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW JERSEY” IS TO BE NAMED AS AN “ADDITIONAL INSURED” ON THE POLICY FOR THE COVERAGE TO BE ACCEPTABLE. If the sponsoring group already has a policy in these amounts, Rutgers must be added as an “Additional Insured” for those dates the event will be on campus. In addition, “RUTGERS, THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW JERSEY” MUST BE NAMED UNDER THE “CERTIFICATE HOLDER” PORTION OF THE DOCUMENT. The Certificate of Insurance can cover an entire year or at minimum must reference the specific event and date of the event.

Certification must be submitted to the Office of Academic Scheduling no later than one month prior to the date of the event. Insurance coverage is a condition of use of university facilities. The University will at its option cancel all functions not meeting the insurance requirement one-month prior to the function. Said Certificate shall provide that the insurance may not be cancelled except upon prior notice to the University. In the event of a cancellation, and at the option of the University, this agreement may be terminated as of the effective date of the cancellation.

Please mail the certificate and signed contract to the Office of Academic Scheduling, 249 University Ave, Blumenthal Hall, Room 208, Newark, NJ 07102. You may also fax the documents to (973) 353-1587 or email to schednwk@andromeda.rutgers.edu
